

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 17, 2012

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2011–12 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1700

Introduced by Assembly Member Butler

February 15, 2012

An act to add Section 62.3 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1700, as amended, Butler. Property taxation: change in ownership: exclusion: cotenancy interests.

The California Constitution generally limits ad valorem taxes on real property to 1% of the full cash value of that property. For purposes of this limitation, "full cash value" is defined as the assessor's valuation of real property as shown on the 1975–76 tax bill under "full cash value" or, thereafter, the appraised value of that real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred. Existing property tax law specifies those circumstances in which the transfer of ownership interests results in a change in ownership of the real property, and provides that certain transfers do not result in a change of ownership.

This bill would provide that a transfer of a cotenancy interest, as defined, in real property from one cotenant to the other that takes effect upon the death of the transferor cotenant and that occurs on or after January 1, 2013, does not constitute a change of ownership, as provided. This bill would require the ~~transferor~~ transferee cotenant to sign an affidavit, as specified, under penalty of perjury.

By imposing new duties upon local tax officials with respect to changes in ownership of real property, and by requiring the transferor cotenant to sign an affidavit under penalty of perjury which would expand the scope of the existing crime of perjury, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that with regard to certain mandates no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

With regard to any other mandates, this bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs so mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to the statutory provisions noted above.

Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code requires the Legislature to reimburse local agencies annually for certain property tax revenues lost as a result of any exemption or classification of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation.

This bill would provide that, notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made and the state shall not reimburse local agencies for property tax revenues lost by them pursuant to the bill.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 62.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation
2 Code, to read:
3 62.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter,
4 a change in ownership shall not include a transfer of a cotenancy
5 interest in real property from one cotenant to the other that takes
6 effect upon the death of the transferor cotenant if all of the
7 following conditions apply:
8 (1) The transfer is solely by and between either of the following:
9 (A) Two joint tenants who together own 100 percent of the real
10 property in joint tenancy.
11 (B) Two two individuals who together own 100 percent of the 12 real property in joint tenancy or as tenants in common.
13 (2) As a result of the death of the transferor cotenant, the
14 deceased cotenant's tenancy in common or joint tenancy interest
15 in the real property is transferred to the surviving cotenant, which

1 results in the surviving cotenant holding a 100-percent ownership
2 interest in the real property immediately after the transfer, thereby
3 terminating the cotenancy.

4 (3) For the one-year period immediately preceding the transfer,
5 the real property was coowned by the transferor and the transferee,
6 and both cotenants have been the owners of record of that real
7 property.

8 (4) The real property constituted the principal residence of both
9 cotenants immediately preceding the transferor cotenant's death.

10 (5) The transferor and the transferee continuously resided at 11 that residence for the one-year period immediately preceding the 12 transfer.

13 (6) The transferee has signed, under penalty of perjury, an
14 affidavit affirming that he or she continuously resided with the
15 transferor at the residence for the one-year period immediately
16 preceding the transfer.

17 (b) A transfer of cotenancy interest in real property from one
18 cotenant to the other shall take effect upon the death of the
19 transferor cotenant under any of the following circumstances:

20 (1) Pursuant to the transferor cotenant's will or trust, upon the 21 death of the transferor cotenant.

22 (2) Through intestate succession from the transferor cotenant.

23 (3) By operation of law, upon the death of the transferor
24 cotenant.

25 (c) The exclusion provided by this section shall not apply to
26 any transfer of real property interests for which a separate exclusion
27 in this chapter applies.

28 (d) For purposes of this section, both of the following apply:

29 (1) "Cotenancy interest" means an interest in real property held
30 only as tenants in common or joint tenants.

31 (2) "Principal residence" means a dwelling eligible for either
32 the homeowners' exemption or the disabled veterans' exemption.

33 (e) This section shall only apply to transfers that occur on or
34 after January 1, 2013.

35 SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to 36 Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain
37 costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district
38 because, in that regard, this act creates a new crime or infraction,
39 eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime
40 or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the

1 Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the
2 meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California
3 Constitution.

4 However, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that
5 this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement
6 to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made
7 pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division
8 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

9 SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and
10 Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state
11 shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues
12 lost by it pursuant to this act.

13 SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of 14 Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.
